True friend ~~must b~~ must be

DETAILED TEACHER FEEDBACK

This composition shows a good understanding of the topic 'Friendship' with clear ideas and a logical flow. Your ability to include a personal anecdote strengthens your points and makes the essay engaging. You have a good grasp of the core message you want to convey. However, there are significant grammatical and tense errors that hinder the clarity and fluency of your writing. Pay close attention to subject-verb agreement, consistent verb tenses, and correct word forms. With focused practice on these areas, your writing will improve considerably. Keep up the good effort!

AREAS FOR IMPROVEMENT

1. Tense consistency: Ensure you maintain a consistent verb tense throughout your narrative, especially when recounting past events.
2. Subject-verb agreement: Always check that your verbs agree in number with their subjects (e.g., 'everyone knows', 'one likes').
3. Word forms: Use the correct part of speech (e.g., a noun like 'cleverness' instead of an adjective like 'clever').
4. Articles and prepositions: Be mindful of using appropriate articles ('a', 'an', 'the') and prepositions to ensure clarity.
5. Punctuation and spacing: Remember to include spaces after punctuation marks and use correct punctuation to separate sentences.
6. Verb forms: Pay attention to correct verb forms, especially after prepositions (e.g., 'instead of being').

IMPROVED VERSION FOR LEARNING

Friendship is very important in life, but not everyone knows how to make or keep it. Many people think a friend is just someone to talk with when you are happy, but true friendship is deeper. A real friend is the one who stands with you when you fail, when you are sick, or when your family is not there.
